To whom it may concern,

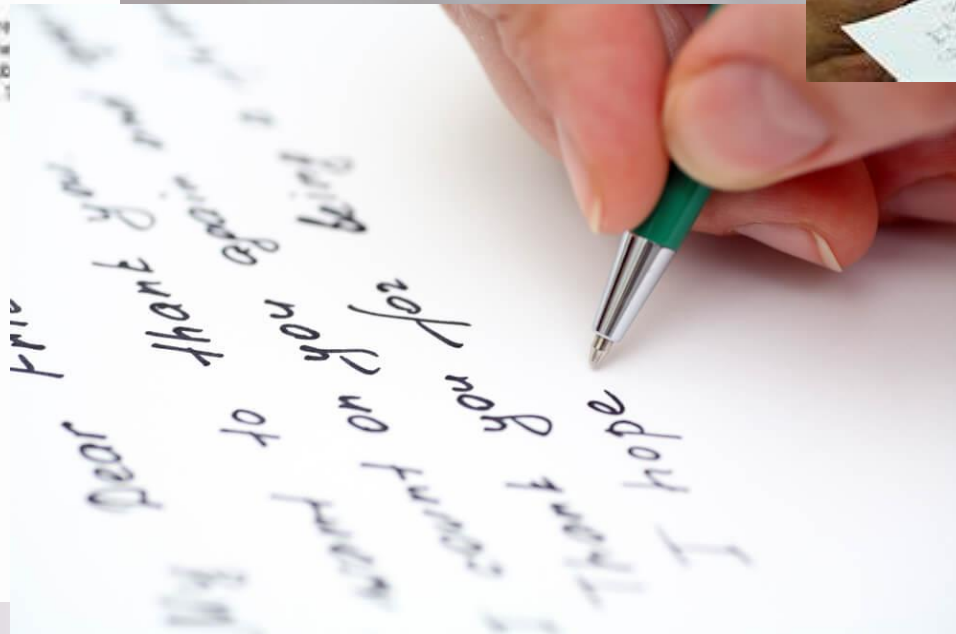

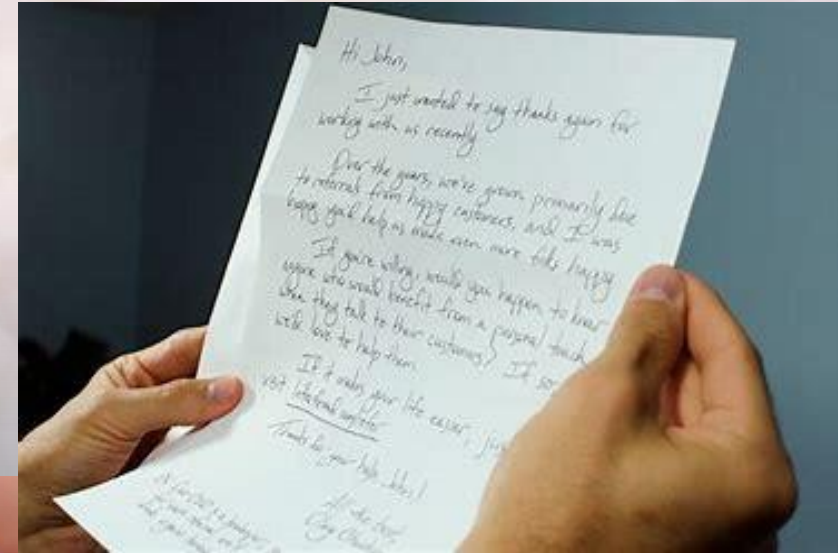

Dear Sir/Madam,

I regretfully submit my resignation from my position as a Customer Service Representative effective April 7, 2015. Although I love my job, my first priority is my family, and I have decided to stay home in Marikina, Batasan.

My reasons for leaving are of a deeply personal nature, but rest assured they are not related to dissatisfaction with my job, the company, or my co-workers. On the contrary, I have experienced immense personal satisfaction, both from my job assignments and from the close friendships I have established with my co-workers. I regret that my current situation requires that I make this difficult decision now.

Sincerely,

Geniss S. Delos Reyes

In your letter, you may wish to include:

Why do you want to be on the Communications Team?

Which skills would you bring to the team?

Do you have fresh ideas and can you share some?

What would you change/what would you keep the same?
