To whom it may concern,

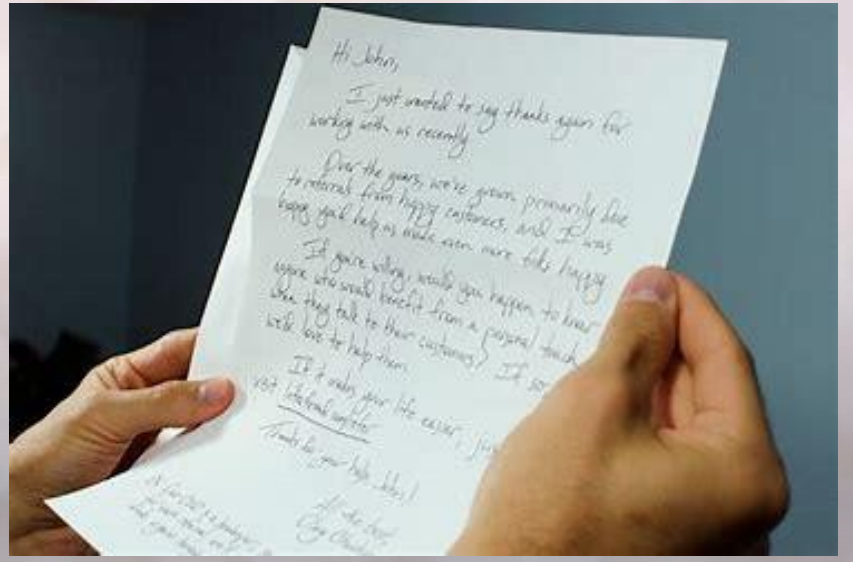

Dear sir/madam,

I regretfully submit my resignation from my position as a Customer Service Representative effective April 7, 2015. Although I love my job, my first priority is my family, and I have decided to stay home in Mariveles, Bataan.

My reasons for leaving are of a deeply personal nature, but rest assured they are not related to dissatisfaction with my job, the company, or my co-workers. On the contrary, I have experienced immense personal satisfaction, both from my job assignments and from the close friendships I have established with my co-workers. I regret that my current situation requires that I make this difficult decision now.

Sincerely,

Carissa S. Delos Reyes
